1. The abstract of the disclosure is objected to because the Abstract contains the undefined acronym "LU". All such acronyms should be defined at the instance of their first use within the Abstract. Correction is required. See MPEP § 608.01(b).
2. Claims 1-8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

As per independent claim 1, it is unclear whether or not the "updating a predetermined square block" (line 21) is the same as "specifying a predetermined square block" (line 4). The term "can sequentially move" (line 24) is indefinite. It is unclear the phrase "repeating the above mentioned steps" (last line) refers to ALL the steps [from specifying to setting steps]. Clarification is requested. Similarly noted independent claim 5.

As per dependent claims 2 and 4, the terms "can be" are indefinite. Similarly noted dependent claims 5 and 8.

3. 35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

4. Claims 1-8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter.

The claims recite a method (claim 1) / program (claim 5) for performing a mathematical function.

"[t]o satisfy section 101 requirements, the claim must be for a practical application of the Sec. 101 judicial exception, which can be identified in various ways:

. The claimed invention "transforms" an article or physical object to a different state or thing.

. The claimed invention otherwise produces a useful, concrete and tangible result,...".

See "Interim Guidelines for Examination of Patent Applications for Patent Subject Matter Eligibility" OG Date: 22 November 2005.

Since there is no physical transform to establish a practical application, a useful, concrete and tangible result appears to be lacking. Therefore, claims 1-8 are directed to a non-statutory process.

5. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Cited references are art of interest.
